Thank you for attending tonight’s Public Meeting. This form is to provide an opportunity for additional input into the project development process. All comments will be considered and included into the project’s technical file. The responses to the comment forms are taken into consideration along with many other factors including, but not limited to, engineering constraints, traffic data, utility and right-of-way impacts, and environmental resources. PennDOT and the Federal Highway Administration (FHWA) weigh many factors in the decision-making process and selection of a preferred alternative.
